General Assembly, in particular the accreditation procedures and modalities of participation utilized at the Monterrey and Doha Conferences;

5. Decides that the modalities for the fourth High-level Dialogue will be the same as those used for the 2005 and 2007 High-level Dialogues, as described in its resolution 59/293 of 27 May 2005;

6. Decides also that the fourth High-level Dialogue will consist of a series of plenary and informal meetings, three interactive multi-stakeholder round tables and an informal interactive dialogue;

7. Decides further that the themes of the round tables and of the informal interactive dialogue will be as follows:

(a) Round table 1: The reform of the international monetary and financial system and its implications for development;

(b) Round table 2: The impact of the current financial and economic crisis on foreign direct investment and other private flows, external debt and international trade;

(c) Round table 3: The role of financial and technical development cooperation, including innovative sources of development finance, in leveraging the mobilization of domestic and international financial resources for development;

(d) Informal interactive dialogue: The link between financing for development and achieving the Millennium Development Goals: the road to the 2010 high-level event;

8. Decides that the fourth High-level Dialogue will result in a summary by the President of the General Assembly that will provide, as appropriate, input on financing for development to the preparatory process of the high-level plenary meeting of the Assembly in September 2010.
